THE LUMBER RATE

The Truckee Republican hits the nail on the head when it says:

The lumber interests will be seriously jeopardized this year unless the railroad company reduce the rates to Salt Lake from $50 to $40. Forty dollars used to be the rate until last Summer. Salt Lake and Ogden are having rival booms. People are living in tents for lack of lumber with which to build houses. The Oregon Short Line is laying down lumber at lower rates than those offered the Truckee millmen, and the inevitable result will be that the magnificent trade of Utah will be lost. The Oregon scuttling is preferable to the Truckee article, and this fact, added to the lower freight will turn the tide of the lumber traffic away from Truckee. More lumber was used last year in Salt Lake than during the two preceding years, and this Summer there will be an enormous demand. Geo. Biggs & Co., from Holyoke, Colorado, and Morrison of the Cheyenne and a Laramie firm of Morrison, Merrill & Co., have started new lumber yards at Salt Lake and each would carry a million feet of Truckee lumber if the old rate could be obtained. There are about nine million feet of lumber on the Truckee river that could be marketed before May 1st. Pat Henry has 1,000,000; Lewison & Smith, 1,000,000; Schaeffer, 800,000; Richardson Bros., 2,000,000; Pacific Lumber & Wood Co., 2,000,000, and Boca Mill Company 2,000,000. Two railroads, both tapping lumber belts, are heading for Salt Lake, and the Truckee mills cannot compete unless the Central Pacific comes to their rescue. At $40 per car load Truckee will monopolize the entire Utah trade. The railroad company is quite as much interested as the millmen, for unless a reduction is made, other roads will haul the lumber which other lumber regions will supply.

Chicagoans are trying to devise some great novelty to add to the attractions of the World's Fair, something that will outdo the Eiffel Tower. Many suggestions have been made, such as the "Phonoga" Hall, seating 15,000 people, with a huge phonograph driven by a gigantic Corliss engine, saying at the opening ceremonies, "Glory to Chicago and Her Fair Forever"; a hundred-story building; a floating garden, five acres in extent; exhibits in typical buildings of the world; a giant kaleidoscope; sham naval battles on a huge scale, such as the engagement between the Monitor and Merrimack; a panorama of Columbus' life; a big summer garden, one acre square, the glass roof resting on five towers 500 feet or more in height; an Eiffel tower leaning like the tower of Pisa; some aluminum cottages; a building of paper containing articles made from the same material; a mammoth ship for the main building; a store on Edward Bellamy's plan; an elegant drinking fountain; a crystal palace, with a mammoth tower of steel encased in glass supporting a huge globe of the world; California redwood trees, and a mammoth panorama of the world. The committee, indeed, expects to make it the greatest show on earth in more ways than one.

Mr. Blaine has expressed the opinion that the United States is in honor bound not to make overtures to Mexico to part with any of her territory. The Government of Mexico has already and repeatedly assured this Government that no Mexican territory was for sale. The declaration has been made the more strong by a constitutional provision to the same effect. To ask a Government to violate the Constitution upon which it stands is an implication that the Government has no respect for its own organic law. Mr. Blaine is quite right in the assumption that under these circumstances we are in honor bound not to make overtures to Mexico to part with any of her territory.

At the same time that General Greeley confirms the prediction of a great flood in the lower Mississippi valley come tidings that a fierce hurricane is lashing the waters against the water-soaked embankments and levees which are washing away rapidly. The Chief Signal Officer is under the impression that one county of Arkansas and five parishes of Louisiana, having a population of 90,000 persons, are in eminent danger of extensive, if not complete, overflow to such an extent as to render loss of life probable, unless vacated. As this region is one of the richest in the cotton belt, the flood is likely to have a bad effect on the next cotton crop.

As might be expected, the Chinese are trying to defeat the Enumeration Bill, which requires the Superintendent of the Census to give every Mongolian in the country a certificate, which shall be the sole evidence of his right to remain in the United States.

The House Committee on Pacific Railroads has decided to frame a single bill providing for the payment of the debts of the Union and Central Pacific to the Government, instead of dealing with these corporations in separate measures.

The United States Senate eats twenty-five bushels of oysters a day in the restaurant downstairs. They are principally eaten raw, with horseradish on the side, and washed down with bottled beer.

It is said that Mr. Cleveland recently declined an offer of a $50,000 salary to take the Presidency of a large company. He was President of the largest company on earth at the same figure.

It requires four new Secretaries to do the work which Bismarck did alone. The Government did not seem to know what a rustler he was till his place had to be filled.

Governor Hill has appointed Major General Daniel E. Sickles, Sheriff of New York, vice Flack, resigned.

THE NEW TARIFF BILL.

REDUCTION OF THE FREIGHT ON FRUIT TO EASTERN POINTS FROM CALIFORNIA.

The International Labor Conference Adjourns Without Accomplishing Anything.

The Tariff Bill.

Special to the JOURNAL.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Among the articles added to the free list of the tariff bill are wearing apparel and other personal effects (not merchandise) of persons arriving in the United States, not exceeding $500 in value. The clause permitting the free entry of articles of growth, produce or manufactures of the United States after exported, was amended by providing it does not apply to articles which advanced in value or improved in condition while out of the country. Among the articles now free which now the bill places on the dutiable list are, hides, except sheepskins with the wool on, 15 per cent ad valorem; eggs, 5 cents per dozen.

Since the abstracts were sent a couple of weeks ago some changes have been made in the dutiable sections. Some of these are slight increases. More of them decrease. Pen knives and pocket cutlery show a sharp increase to from 12 cents to $2 per dozen, and 50 per cent in wooden saws. Timber cut 50 per cent. Sawed white pine boards at $2 per thousand is placed at $2.50, as a safeguard against export duties on logs, provided to equal the excess in that duty. Sugar stands as already noted, at 35 per cent below No. 16 and 45 per cent above, which amounts to 50 per cent reduction on some grades and more than that on others. Cigars, cigarettes, cheroots $3, and 25 per cent liquor schedules are substantially as at present. On wool the duties are already stated. Under the silk schedule, the bounty clause to operate ten years, provides for the payment of $1 per pound on silk produced and reeled in the United States, and seven cents a pound on cocoons.

The international revenue provisions abolish all the special tax upon dealers and manufacturers of tobacco, and Section 33 repeals all laws allowing the distillation of fermented liquors, except in authorized distilleries, and the law allowing the use of alcohol vapor in the manufacture of vinegar. Section 40 confers upon producers of sweet wine, who also distill, the right to use wine spirits to fortify wines, except in May, June and July, of each year. The bill makes 162 closely printed pages.

The New Fruit Rates.

Special to the JOURNAL.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—The Freight Committee of the Transcontinental Railway Association met here to day and adopted a new freight tariff for orange and lemon shipments. The present rate to the Missouri river is $1 12 1/2 per hundred pounds and $1 25 to Chicago and St. Louis. By the new tariff these two rates are removed and one of $1 10 substituted. The rate from here to any and all points between Chicago and St. Louis will be $1 25, being a reduction of 65 cents per hundred between here and New York. The consent of the lines east of the Missouri river must be obtained before the latter rates can go into effect.

Farmers After a Commissionship. Special to the JOURNAL.

WICHITA, Kan., March 31.—The farmers' Alliance of the Southwest are working for the appointment of A. W. Smith, of McPherson, as a member of the State Board of Railroad Commissioners, vice A. R. Green, whose term expires next Tuesday. The two other members of the Commission are from the eastern part of the State, and the Alliance propose, if possible, to have a farmer for the West appointed.

The House.

Special to the JOURNAL.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The Committee of the Whole after discussing the Army Appropriation bill reported the bill to the House. The action of the committee in adopting the amendment providing that no intoxicating liquors shall be sold on any canteen post, was reversed by the House, which then passed the bill.

Springer introduced a joint resolution to retire N. P. Banks with the rank of Major General, which was referred.

Adjourning. Fatal Shooting Near Virginia City. Special to the JOURNAL.

VIRGINIA CITY, March 31.—W. D. Prentice, at one time a noted desperado, was shot and killed on a ranch near this city today by John Taylor, owner of the place. Prentice's neck was almost severed by a load of buckshot. The men quarreled over the ownership of the house. Taylor came here and surrendered to the Sheriff.

Violent Hail Storm in the Foothills. Special to the JOURNAL.

MARSHVILLE, March 31.—A violent hail storm visited the foothill section last evening doing more or less damage to the fruit crop.

California's New University Regent. Special to the JOURNAL.

SACRAMENTO, March 31.—The Governor has appointed Louis Sloss, Jr., of San Francisco, Regent of the State University, vice J. S. Hager, deceased.

Nothing Accomplished.

Special to the JOURNAL.

BERLIN, March 31.—The International Labor Conference, which opened with a great flourish of trumpets, less than two weeks ago, adjourned without attracting the slightest attention. Great things were expected by the conference, which was summoned by the young Emperor, but then its proceedings were overlooked in the excitement produced throughout Europe by the resignation of Prince Bismarck. The proceedings from the opening to the close were of the simplest character and now that an adjournment has been taken, the question is asked, what has the conference accomplished? The proceedings were conducted secretly and those who participated in them refuse to reveal their character. Hence, there is no one in authority to point out, if such can be done, the purpose served by the meeting. Baron Von Berlepsch, the Prussian Minister of Commerce, presided at the deliberations. His remarks, made at various times during the session, had no distinctive character. The decisions of the conference will be subject to the approval of the Governments represented. The debates were conducted in French and the reports will be printed in both French and German. The Emperor to day took farewell of the delegates.

Widows Were Numerous.

Special to the JOURNAL.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 31.—G. W. Harrison, a school teacher, was arrested in Walker county to-day, charged with defrauding the Government out of $8,000. Several years ago the Pension Department began to receive from this section many claims under the Mexican pension law, which provides pensions for widows of Mexican veterans. The papers were properly drawn, witnessed and indorsed. The number of claims has grown so large of late that the Department officials were inclined to believe all the widows of Mexican veterans in the country had moved to Alabama. A special agent was sent here to investigate. The special agent soon found that something was wrong, and further investigations proved all of the notary and witness signatures to be forgeries. Some of the acknowledgments were taken by justices who had never been born.

About $8,000 has been secured from the Government by these alleged widows, and the special agent has secured sufficient evidence to warrant the arrest of Harrison as the professional widow. He will be given a trial here Thursday.

Dressed to Meet Bullets.

Special to the JOURNAL.

MARIANNA, Ark., March 31.—Harrison Davis, a negro farm hand on the Howard plantation, nine miles southwest of town, was shot six times yesterday in an altercation with his employers, Messrs. W. L. and Walter Howard, brothers. Davis had been living on the place all this year without doing any work, and when refused further supplies he opened fire on the Howards with a shotgun, wounding Walter. The brothers drew revolvers and returned the fire. Six shots were fired at Davis, and all of them took effect—one in the forehead, one in the back of the head, one in the left shoulder, one in the abdomen, one in the right hand and one in the chin. The shot in the hand was the only one that did any damage.

The negro had on an overcoat, a sack coat, a vest and five shirts. He had evidently put them on for armor, as the shirts were all clean. The bullets were all removed except the one in the back of the head, which was imbedded in the bone. All three men have been placed under bonds for trial.

Kemmler to be Re-Sentenced.

Special to the JOURNAL.

BUFFALO, March 31.—District Attorney Quinby is preparing the papers necessary to the re-sentencing of murderer William Kemmler. The judgment of the Court of Appeals was to day made the judgment of the Erie county Court of Oyer and Terminer. Next Monday Mr. Quinby will ask that the death sentence be pronounced. Judge Childs, who first sentenced Kemmler to be electrocuted, is expected to re-sentence him. This will occur just two days after the first anniversary of Kemmler's brutal murder of his sweetheart. The execution will probably be fixed for the second week in May, another convict having been condemned to die the first week.

Wants Hides to Remain on the Free List. Special to the JOURNAL.

CHICAGO, March 31.—The members of the leather trade of this city held a meeting to day at the Sherman House, and after electing a President and Secretary proceeded to give utterance to their indignation that the Ways and Means Committee should propose to take hides from the free list and subject them to a duty of 1 1/2 cents a pound. Resolutions embodying the views expressed were adopted and a committee was appointed to proceed with them to Washington and present them to the Congressmen directly responsible for this interference with the leather bill.

Ex-Senator Jones' Latest.

Special to the JOURNAL.

DETROIT, March 31.—Ex-Senator Jones, of Florida, who has been posing in Detroit for five years as the great unrequited lover, is giving his admirers more trouble, and it is possible that he will be sent to an insane asylum. The ex-Senator often sleeps in bar-rooms and hotel-lobbies, and most of his meals are eaten at free-lunch counters. This way of living has had a bad effect on the unhappy man's temper, and he is threatening everybody with destruction. His latest freak was to notify the newspapers that they must make apologies to him for having mentioned the marriage of his Catholic wife, Miss Clothilde Palms, with a professional man of Detroit. The newspapers did not apologize, and Jones then wrote a letter to Bishop Foley, urging the prelate to use his power to crush the infidel press.

Leaves Breaking.

Special to the JOURNAL.

MEMPHIS, March 31.—An Appeal, Greenville, Mississippi, special says: The levee north of this city gave way at noon and the water poured in upon the city which always before has been above the level of the Mississippi at its greatest height. The flood is a tremendous one, the water pouring in from three breaks above and spreading out in all directions, inundating plantation after plantation. It is estimated by engineers that a large portion of the city will be flooded. The water from the Austin break will have an outlet into the Yazoo river which will inundate a large section of country in Sunflower and Yazoo counties. No lives are reported lost and no actual suffering is really anticipated.

Press Association.

Special to the JOURNAL.

SACRAMENTO, March 31.—The semi-annual meeting of the Northern and Central Press Association was held in the E. S. Crocker gallery this evening with Will S. Green, of the Colusa Sun, in the chair. Among those elected to membership were L. L. Palmer, of the Fresno Republican, and Duncan McPherson, of the Santa Cruz Sentinel. Addresses were delivered by S. M. Davis, of the Carson Appeal, and Edward Curtis, of San Francisco. The Association then went into executive session to receive the report of the Advertising Committee.

The Gloomy Situation in Louisville.

Special to the JOURNAL.

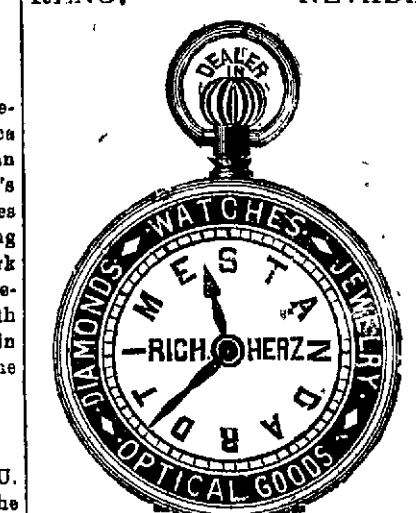

LOUISVILLE, March 31.—With four inches of water soaked snow slowly melting, the situation in the devastated district has been gloomy to-day. Most of the streets are ankle deep in mud and water; scores of families are protected only by hastily put up boards or canvases and they are wet and cold. A vast quantity of household goods have to-day been partially or wholly spoiled by the wet.

Many peculiar points make Hood's Sarsaparilla superior to all other medicines. Peculiar in combination, proportion, and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom. Peculiar in its medicinal merits, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown, and has won for itself the title of "The greatest blood purifier ever discovered." Peculiar in its "goodname at home,"—there is now more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers. Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, has never attained such popularity in so short a time, and retained its popularity and confidence among all classes of people so steadfastly. April fool.
Next Sunday will be Easter.
The sewers are being flushed out.
Brewster Coffin returned from the Bay yesterday morning.
F. G. Newlands has purchased the residence of Mrs. Grippen.
Several of our citizens are talking of a trip to Washington and Oregon.
Lisle Jamison went below Sunday night to act as one of the mail weighers on the railroad service.
The Republican says the lands around Donner Lake will be platted next Summer for villa residences.

The Daily Journal was sixteen years old yesterday, and is now sailing smoothly along into its seventeenth year.

After a visit of three months to her home in Gold Hill, Miss Ada Laakey returned last evening to resume teaching in the public school at Reno.

A cleanup made last week of 104 tons of ore from the Emma Nevada mine near Silver City, crushed at Taylor's mill, netted $2,906 in bullion, one-fourth of which was gold.

Joseph R. Ryan has been granted a divorce from Ella W. Ryan by Judge Levy, of San Francisco, because of desertion by the wife. Ryan was formerly Colner in the Carson Mint.

Mrs. Finlayson left Reno yesterday morning for Salt Lake to meet her daughter Flora. From there she will go to Butte, Mont., to visit one of her married daughters and see her daughter Adah safely off for the Boston Conservatory of Music.

The Sentinel says the Government timber suits in the Circuit Court at Carson against all but the Eureka & Palisade Railroad Company and the Eureka Con. and Richmond Con. Mining Companies, have been dismissed and the wood released.

Charles Brown, a colored bootblack, who had a stand in front of the U. S. Saloon for many years, was found dead in his bed in his room in the Beebe lodging house, Virginia City, yesterday morning. Heart failure was the cause of his sudden death.

W. S. Cleveland, the minstrel manager, runs two companies of equal calibre, and as an extra inducement to arouse interest in the attaches of both he has offered a $10,000 premium to be presented pro rata to the company making the most clear money during the year.

W. S. Cleveland, of minstrel fame, is a liberal manager, still, on business principles, he is never guilty of paying more than a just value. In negotiating with one of his performers, he figured very closely, and the sum at which the artist was engaged was not quite up to that exalted individual's opinion of his financial worth, and he made the fact known in forwarding his portrait, writing: "Enclosed find my photograph, it is as well as I can afford to look for the money." Cleveland appreciated the point.

Uncle Alf Estell's Pets.

The following extract from a letter written by a well-known turfman now in Nashville, Tenn., will be interesting, as it gives considerable information about the Odore Winters' stables: "Yesterday I was at the track and took a look at the Californians. El Rio Rey looks in splendid health, but is a little low in flesh. Rey Del Rey has a strong resemblance to the Emperor, but is a little larger. Don Jose, Joe Courtney and the other horses from the East look very well, except the first named had one of his fore legs dressed in a wet bandage. Judge Post, a brother to Don Jose, is a nice looking two-year-old, of fine size, and from his manner will train quickly and run fast. Average is a cat-like going fellow, and will carry their colors in the trial stags here. Noretta, three years, a full sister to Alta, will be prepared for the Duncan Hotel stake, and it is no secret that the stable expects to get the money with her."

Painful Accident.

While J. F. Aiken's youngest boy was recklessly riding a horse Sunday, the animal became frisky, throwing the boy off. In falling his foot caught in the stirrup, and he was dragged around through the brush and rocks, receiving several severe scalp wounds and bruises, but nothing serious. It was a very narrow escape for the little fellow.

Still Rising.

The Silver State says the Humboldt has been increasing in volume for the last two days and is now above the six foot mark on the bridge. It is not yet out of its banks at this place, but where there are dams the bottom lands are flooded.

Cattle Yards.

The Republican says: "The railroad company are considering the proposition of establishing cattle yards in Truckee. The proposed site is the reserved land, which lies between the M. E. Church, Good Templar's Hall and the Round House. The side track would begin near the water tank in the rear of Irwin's lot, and extend down to where the Catholic Church used to be before the fire. There is abundant room for yards, corrals, scales and sidetracks. The company would receive a large income from the shipment of stock from Sierra Valley and the cattle ranges of the Truckee basin. The stock from these ranges are now driven over the various passes in the mountains, leading to the westward, and Truckee and the railroad company are the losers. Reno is the nearest point at which cattle can now be shipped, and it is cheaper to drive cattle out of the mountains than it is to take them to Reno. Of course there is and always has been a sort of an excuse of a pen into which cattle can be unloaded from the cars, or driven on board, but it is a mere makeshift. It is wholly inadequate to accommodate the wants of the vast grazing regions around Truckee. The contemplated improvements will help build up the town, for they virtually open up a new industry and will give employment to large numbers of men."

Around White Rock.

Surveyor McClellan, who is now in the northern part of Elko county, writes from White Rock, under date of the 25th, as follows: "This part of the country is coming out better than expected. The loss of stock out on the desert will not exceed 80 per cent. Around here about 60 per cent not fed, may have died, but many cattle are coming out of places where it was thought nothing would live. Out of 11 head of cattle in one place, where there was nothing but black sagebrush to eat for six weeks, eight lived and are on good grass. Another band of 15, in a field with nothing but willows to eat, lost 10,000 far. P. Garret & Co. will not lose to exceed 30 per cent of their cattle or horses. On the Reservation I heard many of the Pict's horses were dead, while the Shoshones' were mostly alive."

"The ground is very muddy every place on the bottom, and snow drifts back of the ridges, yet the grass is an inch and a half high, and in a few days more it will not be necessary to grind the stock's noses down so they can reach it."

"So far this is the toughest trip I have ever had. I go to the reservation to-day to lay out a reservoir site and ditches there. Will be about a week, and then hope to get home."

Cleveland's Minstrels.

Everywhere is this mammoth company spoken of in the highest terms. They will appear in Reno next Thursday evening. Of them the New York Sun says: "Last night an audience that crowded every part of the spacious Grand gave testimony in emphatic volume to the worth of a burlesque troupe which, coming to us under a familiar title, developed surprises in its entertainments and introduced new and good performers as its entertainers. The Cleveland-Haverly minstrels had won welcome from last night's house before the first part was finished, and it was tribute uncommon, no less significant, that every ensuing number on the program to the finish held undiminished the numerous spectators. The new show, in short, was a success, and a substantial one. It will be seen in town often henceforth, that is certain, for last night's outcome of its metropolitan debut meant much."

Colorado's Mineral Palace.

The Mineral Palace now being erected in Pueblo, Colorado, will cost about $250,000. It will be of handsome design, the exterior being a series of square columns and beautifully polished stone. The carving will be ornate. All parts of the building will be of the products of Colorado's mines, the owners in all the counties in the State, having sent in their choicest and richest specimens. In the interior will be seen every variety of mineral production, from stone to pure gold, the value of which will be at least $750,000. The expense of developing this grand and brilliant conception will be assumed by the public spirited citizens of Colorado. It is intended to be a permanent exhibit, open every day of the year round, and its originators desire to have the choicest specimens of mineral wealth from every State in the Union represented side by side with the resources of Colorado. Building stone, granite and marble is also desired. The building will be lighted by 3,000 incandescent electric lights. It is the intention to reproduce this in duplicate for design and brilliancy of decoration and display but somewhat reduced in size, as the Colorado mineral exhibit for the World's Fair in Chicago in 1892, should that scheme materialize.

WHAT ON ARTH.

Is the reason people will not, can not or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at exorbitant prices, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparallel satisfaction for purifying the blood as BROWN'S BLOOD PURIFIER AND BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work cost you nothing.

ON A WESTERN RIVER.

A STORY OF THE DAYS WHEN DISASTERS WERE FREQUENT.

An Experience on the Growler That Was Not the Howling Success Its Captain Had Predicted—A Fire Alarm and Its Results—Unanimous Opinion.

About the time the closing scenes of the late war were being enacted several steamboats were burned, one after another, at various points on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers and their tributaries. A singular fatality seemed to have befallen them, as one after another fell victims to the flames. Finally, after the last one burned—the ill-fated Sultana—there came a feeling of relief. Still, with the regained confidence, the owners and officers of steamboats took every precaution to protect the lives and property entrusted to their care. The government grew more exacting in enforcing its licenses and laws. New lifesaving inventions were imposed upon the boats until it was almost an impossibility for a boat to be lost by fire, or the life of a passenger or one of the officers or crew to be sacrificed. Every captain felt it his personal duty to look after the safety of his boat and the passengers under his charge.

THE FIRE BRIGADE.

Suddenly an idea sprung up, and was seized upon as being a very good and sensible one if properly carried out. It was to organize the officers of a boat into a sort of a fire brigade and drill them in such a manner that in case of fire each man would understand his duty and be found at his post when called upon in the hour of danger and need. The captain was to rush to the roof, ring the big bell to sound the alarm; the pilots were to stand at the wheel until ordered to desert it by the captain; the clerks were to rush to the office and save the books, money and papers; the steward and cabin boys were to make their way to the rooms and arouse the passengers; one engineer was to stand by his engines, while the other was to remain at the pumps; the mates were to apply and direct the hose; the deck hands, roustabouts and firemen were to throw the stages and lifeboats overboard. Thus every man on the boat had some special duty to perform as soon as the alarm of "fire" was given.

Of course, rehearsals were necessary and frequent to make the men perfect in the performance of their duties. The experiment soon became such a success that quite a number of boats adopted the plan and began boasting of their success.

Among these may be mentioned old Jim Crowder, captain and owner of the one-boilered, flat-bowed, stern-wheel steamer Growler. The Growler towed rafts and did a general business on the bottom of the upper Bitterwater, and could run down stream like a wild locomotive when she was feeling good. Capt. Jim and his crew had formed themselves into a fire brigade, and he was very proud of their performances. One day he received an order to go fifteen miles up the river and bring down nearly 200 negro woodchoppers to a new field of operations. Before starting he invited a few friends to accompany him up and back on the trip.

Said he: "I want to show you coming back how my new fire brigade works. It's a success."

The guests stepped aboard, and all being in readiness, the Growler started up the river after the woodchoppers, who were on the bank awaiting her arrival. After taking them on board, she turned her head down the narrow stream, the decks black with woodchoppers. Old Capt. Jim had posted his crew, and he wanted them to "show off" before his friends. Settling them together, he led them down to the forecastle with the remark: "Now, you fellows stand right here, and I'll show you something you never saw before. Now watch, and if you don't say it's a success you kin have the boat."

WHAT HE SHOWED THEM.

The negroes were all over the boat—upstairs and down, some singing, some dancing, some asleep. On the Growler fore. Old Capt. Jim remarked to his guests: "Are you ready? Here goes. Watch 'em." And he gave one wild Comanche yell of "Fire!" and made a rush for the roof, but he never got there. All was wild commotion. Everybody yelled "Fire!" The officers flew to their posts of duty as they had been trained to do. The negroes jumped overboard from the top and sides, and some jumped over the wheel behind. About fifty of them rushed down the front steps over Capt. Jim, hiding him from view altogether for a time; and before they could stop the Growler there wasn't a negro on the boat anywhere and the banks on both sides of the river were lined with frightened darkies wringing wet and trembling from the shock of their sudden bath. The boat landed to take them aboard, but they preferred walking, and the Growler went down the river without them. Upon arriving at the home wharf his friends took old Capt. Jim by the hand and one of them observed: "Captain, we have enjoyed the trip and thank you, and we are unanimous in our opinion that your fire brigade is a success. There wasn't a life lost and the experiment worked like a charm. You ought to get it patented."

"Ver see, I forgot all about the darned fool niggers bein' there," he answered, apologetically. "I ought to have told 'em 'bout it afore I hollered fire, oughtn't I?"

The next time old Capt. Jim tested his fire brigade it worked like a charm.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Phonograph and Dog.

Speaking of dogs reminds me of a certain Newfoundland puppy that belongs to a young man who has recently gone to work at the Edison phonograph agency in New York city. He left his pet here in Washington with his family, whom he writes to dutifully every day by talking machine, as it were—that is to say, he talks off a few filial or brotherly remarks, as the case may be, into the trumpet shaped mouthpiece of the phonograph, and then mails the cylinder to his home, where another phonograph is in operation. The cylinder is put into the home machine and the message ground out in the dear boy's own familiar accents. The other day a loud whistle wound up the communication, and the dog, recognizing it as his absent master's own call, though the latter was 200 miles away, jumped for joy and capered about so wildly that the bric-a-brac suffered.

A Valentine Verse.

The poets Gay, Chaucer and Shakespeare wrote a deal of St. Valentine, as also did Donne, an almost unknown poet of the time. One of the sweetest bits of verse penned by Donne was on the marriage, Feb. 14, 1614, of Princess Elizabeth to Frederick, Count Palatine of the Rhine. Thus the address begins: "Hail, Bishop Valentine! whose day this is; All the air is thy diocese, And all the chirping choristers And other birds are thy parishioners; Thou marrest every year The lyric lark and the grave whispering dove; The sparrow that neglects his life for love, The household bird with the red stomach; Thou mak'st the blackbird speed as soon As doth the goldfinch or the halcyon; This day more peacefully than ever shine, This day which might incense thyself, old Valentine."

250 Beautiful Lots For Sale!

A RARE CHANCE FOR AN INVESTMENT AND A HOME

THE MOST LOVELY PORTION OF RENO.

Facing the Truckee—The Aristocratic Avenue Riverside Driveway—Splendid Sewerage—Healthy Location and Safe From Fire.

The proprietor is now ready to receive proposals for lots in Powning's Addition. The map gives a good idea of the tract, which is situated between the Central Pacific Railroad and the Truckee River, and commences on the west at a point three blocks distant from Virginia Street, making it the most central and convenient of any portion of the rapidly growing town of Reno. Unlike any other part of the town this Addition faces the beautiful Truckee River and Riverside Avenue is certain to become the fashionable driveway of the country. The streets are 80 feet wide, while Riverside and Keystone Avenues are intended to be 100 feet in width. All alleys are 20 feet wide. The soil is a rich gravelly loam, and susceptible of the highest state of cultivation. Being situated as it is it is more safe from fire than any other section. The regular lots are 50x140 feet. The sewerage is perfect.

Before Buying Elsewhere Parties will do Well to Look at These Lots.

RENO

Reno's geographical position is excellent. It is on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, only 154 miles from Sacramento, and 244 miles from San Francisco. It is the terminus of the Virginia and Truckee Railroad running south, and of the Nevada and California Railroad running north. It has two Flouring Mills, Planing Mills, three Nurseries, a Soap Factory, Reduction Works, and other industries. A great Woolen Mill and a Sash, Door, Blind and Box Factory, are about to be established.

Reno has the Bank of Nevada with $300,000 capital, and the First National Bank with $200,000 capital. It has two fine papers in the DAILY and WEEKLY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL and the Daily and Weekly Gazette.

Reno is the natural home of the Alfalfa, and therefore the great cattle headquarters of the State. Here are fed the prime beef for the California market. Reno potatoes are the best in the world, and she also excels in Strawberries and the small fruits. Reno Wheat took the first prize at the great New Orleans Exposition.

The State Fair is always held at Reno.

Reno is the County Seat of Washoe County, the wealthiest county in Nevada.

Situated in the very heart of the celebrated Truckee Meadows the future of Reno is assured. Reno is the City of Homes. There is not a house to rent in Reno. New buildings are occupied as fast as erected. Reno has advantages which no other town can equal. The climate is mild and genial in Winter, and even and healthful in Summer. There are no excessively heated or severely cold terms, and while the days may be warm in Summer the nights are deliciously cool; in Winter sleigh-riding is the exception and not the rule.

Facilities for irrigating surpass any in the State and there is no failure of crops. Reno has Churches of all denominations, Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls, Mt. St. Mary's Academy, the State University, and splendid Public Schools.

The Reno Water Co. furnishes ample pure, cold water for all purposes. The Reno Electric Light Co.'s electric light system, already well established, is being augmented. The Reno Gas Co. supplies gas for all purposes. The streets of Reno are lighted by electricity.
